

THE FINANCIAL WORLD

NEWS IN NUMBERS

150 JOBS

E-commerce firm MyDala has plans to hire over 150 sales people during the ongoing financial year support its plan to expand its partnership with merchants in the country. "We are looking to add over 150 sales workforce this fiscal. This is to support our expansion plan to go further deep in existing cities and take our reach to over 250 cities in India and Asia," Mydala CEO and Founder Anisha Singh said. The company provides promotional deals for retail customers across restaurants, electronic products, tours and travels, health and beauty services among others. The company has also partnered with telecom operator Vodafone —PTI

